

2010 Registrar Training Course

Please mark these dates in your diary

Saturday 19 June, 2010

Neurosurgery: Complex management, case studies and neuroanatomy tutorial

Sunday 20 June, 2010

Spine biomechanics: Principles of management and practical considerations

Sydney Clinical Skills and Simulation

Centre Kolling Institute, Royal North Shore Hospital NSW

See overleaf for course information and registration details

Johnson & Johnson MEDICAL

elevating best practice
in neurosurgery

Saturday
19 June, 2010

Neurosurgery: Complex management, case studies and neuroanatomy tutorial

Course Overview

This course is designed specifically for senior neurosurgical registrars, addressing aspects of neurosurgery and neuroanatomy.

Course Objectives

The course will cover complexities of Hydrocephalus and Endovascular treatment of Aneurysms through didactic lectures and group discussion. Participants will have an opportunity to enhance their knowledge of Neuroanatomy through a wet lab prosection session and discussion.

elevating best practice in spine

Sunday
20 June, 2010

Spine biomechanics: Principles of management and practical considerations

Course Overview

This course will focus on spinal pathologies viewed from a biomechanics and principles of fusion perspective. It is designed specifically for neurosurgery and orthopaedic registrars.

Course Objectives

The course objectives are to enhance the participant's knowledge and skills in the principles of fusion in spine surgery. It will cover basic biomechanics and practical considerations in lumbar and cervical surgery through didactic lectures, case-based exercises and group discussions.

For further information, or to register for this training course, please contact your local DePuy Spine/Codman representative or:
Melissa Mason Phone 03 9902 1375 Email mmason@its.jnj.com